

Elastic Staffing

Staffing-as-a-Service model for any Data and Analytics capabilities!

More, and increasingly complex data-driven initiatives—combined with more tools, more data and rapidly evolving requirements—are putting unprecedented pressures on data & analytics support teams. Almost every organization faces a shortage of skills, which leads to longer wait-times to get data in the hands of the business, the way they need it.

InfoCepts Elastic Staffing provides a flexible Staffing-as-a-Service model across the gamut of data & analytics skillsets to support niche, tool/project-specific, or surge requirements, with guaranteed response times, and for however long it's needed. Our service catalog approach lets you choose technology skills and services you need just when you need it. Your team gets the best of both worlds—on-demand access to tool or competency-specific experts, at a fraction of the cost of FTEs—yet with full control of outcomes that you are used to.
